Looking Back at Carne Hill Methodist Chapel A Potted History Based on the Tucker Family

William Henry Tucker was born in 1866 at Enniscaven and he died in 1942 at Hendra Road, St.Dennis aged 76 years.

He worked for the Goonvean and Rostowrack China Clay and Stone firm and was a devout member of Carne Hill Methodist Chapel. He served as a trustee as well as being a Sunday School teacher. He was on the Chapel Trust when they purchased the Carne Hill recreation field. A tree planting ceremony was held there on October 12th. 1938. 134 trees were planted in the field and a tennis court was made near the chapel. The first tree was planted by M.Petherick Esq. M.P. For full details see page 3 and page 4 which lists the names of people planting trees.

William Henry was presented with a large cup and saucer on the occasion of his birthday by his Sunday School class. The cup and saucer has been handed down to Margaret Tucker (Pearn), his granddaughter.

He married Ethel Mary Osborne in July 1900 and they lived at Hendra Road St.Dennis. There were four boys in the family namely, Alfred, John, Harold and Arnold. All attended Carne Hill Methodist Chapel. Alfred sang in the bass section of the choir, while Arnold became a trustee and door steward.

Harold and Arnold both married and continued to live in the village. Harold married Vera Solomon and they had two children, Marjorie and Kenneth. Arnold married Joy Craddock and had one child, Margaret. John Married Janie May and went to live in Indian Queens. Here he attended Indian Queens Wesley Chapel and was a Sunday School teacher, teaching me, John Pearn as a small boy. Alfred remained a bachelor.

Harold's daughter Marjorie married Mr. C.Bullen at Carne Hill Chapel in January 1951. Margaret, Arnold and Joy's daughter was bridesmaid along with Marion Grigg.

Two generations connected with Carne Hill Methodist Chapel

A Summary of Margaret's Memories About the Family and Her Own Connection with Carne Hill Methodist Chapel 1940's and 1950's

The whole family was associated with Carne Hill over many years.. I attended Sunday School from an early age and my Sunday School teacher was a Mrs.Tucker (no relation). Sunday School Anniversary services were special with large congregations. We were trained by Mrs.Mennear and later by Miss Kent. The tea treat would follow in the week in the field if dry. Saffron buns, music by St.Dennis Band and sports. Sunday School concerts at Christmas and a vivid memory of "The Stained Glass Window" produced by Miss Kent.

Teaching the beginners in Sunday School and playing the piano for them, again under the guidance of Miss Kent. I played in turn for the Guild held in the vestry. Choir practices were regular under Mr. Treloar and later Mr. G. Craddock. Anthems, Cantatos, concerts in local chapels were all experienced. Finally marriage at Carne Hill on 5t.April 1958, making my wedding vows, signing the register and children from John's class throwing confetti after the ceremony.

Carne Hill Methodist Chapel

The youth rally was held annually for a number of years, drawing people from all over the circuit. The Rev. S. Quick from the Indian Queens section of the circuit views the congregation from the pulpit. Seats were placed in the aisles. I notice people from Indian Queens Wesley, Immanuel, Fraddon, Blackcross, St.Columb, Trethosa and Carne Hill. Mrs. E. Tucker, wife of Mr. W. H. Tucker is seated in the first row of the gallery, second on the left. Other chapels were well represented. The minister for St.Dennis section at this time was the Rev. A. Olds. Hats were the order of the day for ladies !

Evening Rally April 29th. 1953

I was asked to take the choir for the Evening Rally. Each year they would find a youth to take the choir and it was shared round the four sections of the circuit, namely St.Dennis, Indian Queens, St.Columb and Padstow.

I was in my final year at Newquay Grammar School for Boys and about to take my 'A' Levels. The Rev. Ware of St.Columb assisted in my preparation for this task. Again the chapel would be packed to capacity, Without the Rev. Ware's help I am sure I would have thought the responsibility beyond me.

Hymn 416 M.H.B.

LIFE and light and joy are found
In the presence of the Lord ;
Life with richest blessing crowned,
Light from many fountains poured ;
Life and light and holy joy,
None can darken or destroy.

Bring to Him life's brightest hours,
He will make them still more bright ;
Give to Him your noblest powers,
He will hallow all your might ;
Come to Him with eager quest,
You shall hear His high behest.

All your questions large and deep,
All the open thoughts of youth,
Bring to Him and you shall reap
All the harvest of His truth ;
You shall find in that great store
Largest love and wisest lore.

Then when comes life's wider sphere
And its busier enterprise,
You shall find Him ever near,
Looking with approving eyes,
On all honest work and true
His dear servants' hands can do.

Chairman's Remarks ... John Pearn

Hymn 356 M.H.B.

GREAT God of wonders ! all Thy ways
Display the attributes divine ;
But countless acts of pardoning grace
Beyond Thine other wonders shine :

Chorus—
Who is a pardoning God like Thee ?
Or who has grace so rich and free ?

In wonder lost, with trembling joy
We take the pardon of our God ;
Pardon for crimes of deepest dye,
A pardon bought with Jesu's blood :

Pardon—from an offended God !
Pardon—for sins of deepest dye !
Pardon—bestowed through Jesu's blood !
Pardon—that brings the rebel nigh !

O may this strange, this matchless grace,
This God-like miracle of love,
Fill the wide earth with grateful praise,
As now it fills the choirs above !

The Youth Choir

The Youth Choir would be drawn from the circuit and trained by Mr. G. Roseveare from Trethosa. They often sang from the Sunday School Hymnal, new in 1950 and 3rd. impression in 1953. This introduced young people to the new hymns and the older congregation.

Hymn 730 M.H.B.

FATHER of everlasting grace
Thy goodness and Thy truth we praise,
Thy goodness and Thy truth we prove ;
Thou hast, in honour of Thy Son,
The gift unspeakable sent down,
The Spirit of life, and power, and love.

Send us the Spirit of Thy Son,
To make the depths of Godhead known,
To make us share the life divine ;
Send Him the sprinkled blood to apply,
Send Him our souls to sanctify,
And show and seal us ever Thine.

So shall we pray, and never cease,
So shall we thankfully confess
Thy wisdom, truth, and power, and love;
With joy unspeakable adore,
And bless and praise Thee evermore,
And serve Thee as Thy hosts above :

Till, added to that heavenly choir,
We raise our songs of triumph higher,
And praise Thee in a bolder strain,
Out-soar the first-born seraph's flight,
And sing, with all our friends in light,
Thy everlasting love to man. Amen.

Address Rev. J. K. Meir, B.A.

Hymn 325 M.H.B.

O COME, ye sinners, to your Lord,
In Christ to paradise restored ;
His proffered benefits embrace,
The plenitude of gospel grace :

A pardon written with His blood,
The favour and the peace of God,
The seeing eye, the feeling sense,
The mystic joys of penitence ;

The godly grief, the pleasing smart,
The meltings of a broken heart,
The tears that tell your sins forgiven,
The sighs that waft your souls to heaven ;

The guiltless shame, the sweet distress,
The unutterable tenderness,
The genuine, meek humility,
The wonder—Why such love to me ?

The o'erwhelming power of saving grace,
The sight that veils the seraph's face ;
The speechless awe that dares not move,
And all the silent heaven of love.

No. 1

(539 School Hymn Book)

Tune: This Joyful Eastertide

THIS joyful Eastertide,
Away with sin and sorrow.
My love, the crucified,
Hath sprung to life this morrow :

Chorus—

Had Christ, that once was slain,
Ne'er burst His three day prison,
Our faith had been in vain ;
But now hath Christ arisen,
Arisen, arisen, arisen.

My flesh in hope shall rest,
And for a season slumber ;
Till trump from East to West
Shall wake the dead in number :

Death's flood hath lost his chill,
Since Jesus crossed the river.
Lover of souls, from ill
My passing soul deliver :

No. 2

(454 School Hymn Book)

Tune: Beacon

WHEN darkness creeps over the sea
And hides the far land from the sight,
What will the many ships do
That seek their lone way through the night ?
Who'll guide them past the sharp rocks,
Who'll warn them danger is near,
Light up the darkness with hope,
Banish the voyager's fear,
And mark out the way ?

The lighthouse-man comes to the task,
To serve God and man through the night ;
Climbs up his steep winding stair,
His wonderful lamp sets alight ;
There, all alone, he keeps watch,
Flashing his light o'er the waves,
Symbol of guidance divine,
Off'ring a service that saves,
And showing the way.

Lord, when in the service of life
We take up the tasks of our race,
May we, like lightkeepers brave,
Be worthy our trust and our place ;
In the dark hours when men fail
Keep our faith burning and bright,
Lit by the flame of Thy love,
Jesus, Thou heavenly Light,
Our only true Way.

Our Wedding Ceremony
in Carne Hill Methodist Chapel
5th. April 1958 at 10:30am

The presiding minister was the Rev. Graham Leaman, who stood inside the communion rail. Guests from both sides occupied the central pews. The choir stalls were empty on the day. The regular organist, Miss D. Bullock was at the organ. Margaret had been a Sunday School teacher and pianist in the Primary and Beginners, a pianist in turn for Guild and a choir member. I sang in the choir on occasions during our courting days when leaving college in 1957.

The Vestry

Here the wedding registry was signed. The appointed preacher for Sunday services welcomed by the society steward. A prayer would be said and the preacher introduced to the choir in the adjoining room. Here the preacher would offer prayer. The Sunday School beginners used the vestry as did the Guild. In 1956 – 1958 St.Dennis C.P. School used it for a first year junior classroom as the school was overcrowded. It would hold many memories for children, brides and bridegrooms, preachers, society stewards and a large number of adults.

CARNE HILL METHODIST CHURCH

It has been over eighteen months since I last contributed to this magazine, but neither I nor the folk at Carne Hill have been idle during that time! Apart from visiting, holding services and funerals, we have been doing the paperwork connected with the new chapel. I should like to pay particular tribute to John Williams, our Property Steward, and other members of the Church Council for their hard work in this period.

I am pleased to confirm what many of you probably know by now, that planning permission from Cornwall Council and the final consent from the Methodist authorities has now been given for the sale of half of the Carne Hill Chapel field with full planning for 10 dwellings, and for the demolition of the old chapel & Sunday school and the building of a new chapel/community building on the same site. Subject to some minor matters, work will start towards the end of July on the demolition, and after the sale is complete and a contract agreed, work will be begin on the new building. A buyer has been found, and funding is now mostly in place.

In my article in this magazine in January 2017 I referred to the new hope of a new year, and the overcoming of obstacles. How that hope proved to be justified, and how the obstacles have been overcome. We have tried to listen to what God is saying to us as we go along, and we are greatly encouraged, for we now hope that the new building will be open sometime next year.

We are clearly not there yet, but we are now on our way. There is still much work to do, and I invite anyone in the village and community around who wishes to work with us to get in touch. We are beginning a new chapter in the life of the Methodists in St Dennis – an exciting one, where we wish to work together with our friends at St Denys and with people throughout the community. We wish in particular to focus on facilities for children and young families, and the elderly.

We still remain extremely grateful to the Rev Canon Paul Arthur and the PCC for their kindness in letting us Methodists use St Denys Church for worship.

Diggers demolish last chapel in clay village

By Natasha Swift

natasha@staustellvoice.co.uk

THE DIGGERS have moved in to demolish one Clay Country village's only remaining chapel which has been at the heart of the community for more than 100 years.

Came Hill Methodist Chapel and Sunday School in St Dennis is being knocked down to make way for a new church and community building.

Last year a five year vision was set out to transform the chapel into a vibrant community hub to help preserve the building for future generations.

Fears were raised two years ago that falling congregation numbers and spiralling maintenance costs could threaten to force its closure.

Despite continuing repairs and alterations over the years, in the summer of 2012 a Quinquennial Report - the five yearly report on the state of the church building carried out by a surveyor or architect - listed a number of work that had to be done to the 142-year-old chapel.

At the time members agreed that major renovations needed to be carried out on chapel to secure its future.

They issued a call to parishoners to help come up with ideas for the use of the hall and a questionnaire was sent out to all residents.

Originally, there were three methodist chapels in the village, but Came Hill, which was built in 1872, is the only one that still remains open.

The St Austell Circuit put together a plan of action for the chapel to create a safe space for worship, play, learning, recreation, workshops and surgeries.

The mission stated: "We are envisioning a five year plan to allow Came Hill Methodist Church to become a realistic centre for the community with a large parking area for 60 cars.

"With very few facilities in Clay Country, this village and surrounding area is in dire need of a space."

The plan to transform the chapel has been divided into three phases.

Half of the land owned by The Methodist Church has been sold for development, which it said could provide up to £180,000 minimum to cover most of the cost of refurbishing the building.

As part of phase one the roof of the chapel will be repaired or replaced.

Phase two will see the flooring throughout the building replaced alongside the removal of the organ and pews in the rear Sunday School, gallery removed, damp and dry rot treated, toilets including one disabled installed and the Sunday School room redecorated.

The third phase would involve the completion of the Sunday School room with two toilets all with full disabled access, installing an electronic organ, chairs, carpet and putting the final touches in place.

The plans have been given the backing of St Dennis Parish Council.

This article was published on the 10th. October 2018. The roof of the chapel has been stripped of tiles and the front porch knocked down. We visited on the evening of the 10th.October 2018 and the whole of the chapel had been knocked down. The old Sunday School was still standing. The plan described in the above article was abandoned and a new chapel and community building is to be built on the existing site and field. Housing will be built in half of the land owned by the Methodist Chapel.

Carne Hill Methodist Chapel Demolition

The chapel demolition began in October 2018. First the inside was gutted and wood piled up outside. Scaffolding and safety fences were erected. Walls by the front door and road reduced to rubble. Modern machines at work compared to when it was built in 1972.

The village and chapel, nestled below the hill, in October 2018. Trees planted in 1938 still in evidence. Roof tiles removed from the chapel, Sunday School and Vestry revealing wooden rafters. Part of the field and tennis court taken away. Blocks of rubble which housed a worshipping people.

John's Memories of Carne Hill Methodist Chapel

My first memory is being Chairman at the St.Columb and Padstow Youth Rally in April 1953. In 1957 singing in the choir for Harvest Festival. The cantata "Giver Divine" being conducted by Mr. G. Craddock. I played the organ for St.Dennis School's Christmas Carol Service in 1957.

My marriage to Margaret on the 5th. April 1958 and being showered with confetti after the ceremony by children in my class from St.Dennis School ! As a reader, St.Columb and Padstow Circuit, I took some services at the chapel. There was a welcome from the steward, prayers led by the steward and introduction to the choir.

Conducting the Youth Choir and small orchestra for the annual Youth Rally in the 1960's.

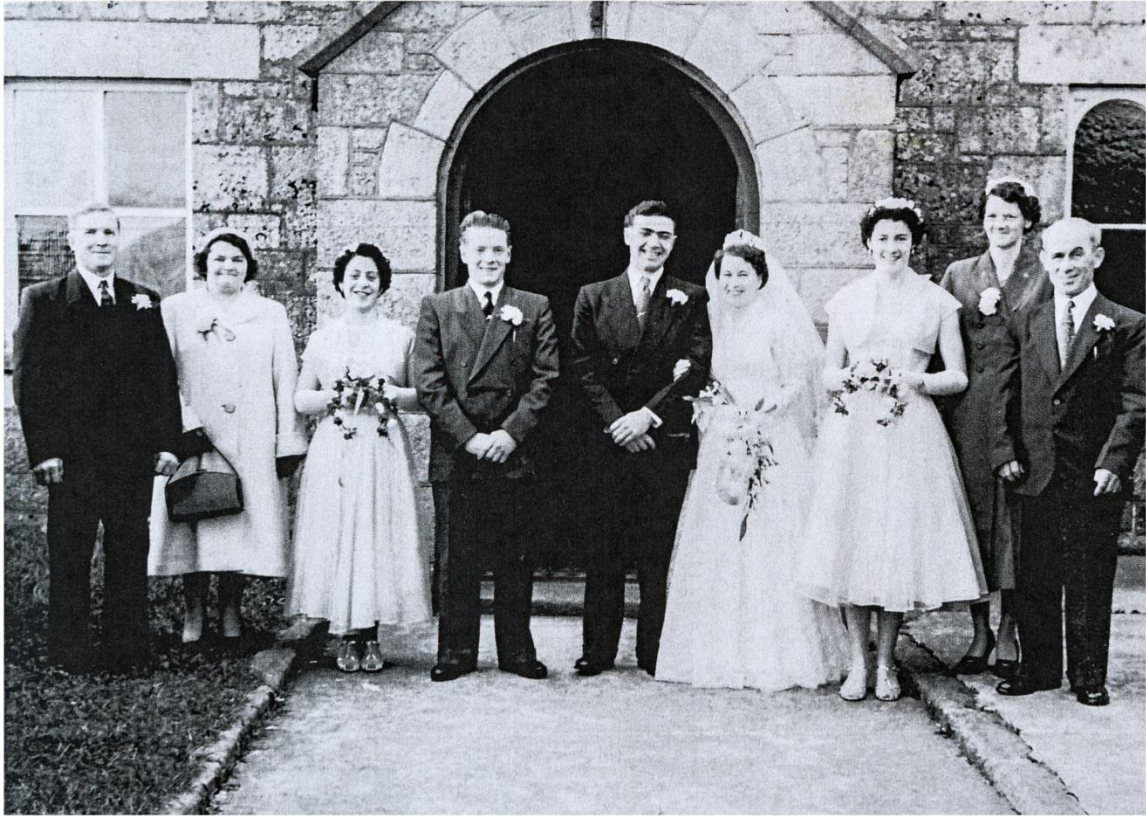

Later in the 1970's a family concert for a special occasion. The pleasure of meeting past pupils taught at the Garden and Needlework shows in the last few years and shining memories over a cup of tea in the Sunday School with folk known to both of us.
